I have been benefited from the opportunity to do English Training in EC School London, and it has been a great juncture to improve my level for my job and my general English.
I think this is the best experience I could have to improve my English with an intensive training, and to be immersed in the country of the language.
at EC School London
Teachers of EC School are easily attained to have a feedback and explanations about your homework and your difficulties of oral's comprehension.
The EC staff have been organising many activities to speak with them and the other international students.

I am fully aware that the above review may be posted online and/or used for EC's website, brochures and other promotional content
